

Prices / Delivery costs

Price information

The prices listed at the time of the order are applicable as shown on the goods / services and later in the shopping basket. All prices shown are gross prices including value added tax (VAT) if applicable. The purchase price is due and payable immediately after receipt of the goods or services.

In Germany, the Fixed Book Price law applies to fixed price goods offered by the vendor and are legally binding. Deviations are not permitted by law. Price deviations due to data-entry errors cannot be ruled out. In this case, the prices are still valid according to the Fixed Book Price law.

The purchase price is due and payable immediately on receipt of the goods or services. In case of payment default, the customer shall be automatically in arrears 10 days after the payment due date.

Delivery costs

Magazine subscriptions

Postage and delivery costs are included in the subscription price. If you do not enter a country of destination (as per order step 2 / registration process), the system will automatically use Germany by default. The correct price will be calculated and indicated after your registration in the ordering process.
